

45

Goodwill

Not having to pay for a hotel room or a conference fee because of illness, despite not having cancelled:
a goodwill gesture
meeting someone halfway retaining customers
avoiding difficulties
taking account of time and effort
using common sense
showing a bit of empathy waiving one's rights.

It's goodwill that gives a human face to daily life and work.
Exploiting it means squandering it.